

10 Tips Parents Should Give Their Children

1. Don't get into any car unless your parents tell you to do so.
2. Stay away from anyone who follows you on foot or in a car. You do not need to go near a car to talk to people inside.
3. Grown-ups and other people who need help should not be asking children for help; they should be asking older people.
4. Grown-ups should not be asking you for directions or to look for a "lost puppy" or that your mother or father is in trouble and ask you to help.
5. You should use the "buddy system" and never go places alone.
6. Quickly get away from anyone who tries to take you somewhere and yell or scream: "This person is not my parent," or "this person is trying to take me away"; or even "Fire" to get people's attention.
7. Always ask your parent's permission to leave the yard or play area or go into someone's house.
8. Never try to get a ride home with people unless your parents have told you it's okay.
9. People should not ask you to keep a special secret. If they do, tell your parents or teacher.
10. Tell a stranger "No" if they want to take your picture and tell your parents or teacher.
